

Overall Structure of the GMM Programme

The Structure of the Study Programme:

Semester	Semester Themes
1	Personal development, team building and working environment Personal competence development • Global manufacturing • Global Communication • Global team work • Mathematics •Statistics• Business Cases
2	Operation Management Designing the production process • Planning and control in production • Improvement tools • Materials and production technology • Purchasing • Intercultural communication/ team work
3	Management and Motivation Management and motivation • Managerial economics • Static's processes• Quality, safety and environmental management • The company in network • Language • Specialization
4	Integrated Product Development Process optimization • Investment/Financing • Integrated product development • Materials and production technology • Marketing • Sourcing •Construction • Specialization
5	Logistics and Strategic Business Development Logistics • Change Management • Strategy Management • Outsourcing • Supply Chain Management •Specialization
6	Placement in Denmark or abroad
7	Final project

The teaching is basically centred around substantial obligatory company projects.

Company Project overview for GMM

1st semester –
fall

Time:

October - December

Subject: Global
production view

2nd semester -
spring

Time:

March - May

Subject: Lean
Production projects